SAINT-CERGUES, REST OF FRANCE

Chateau de Neydens is an exquisite contemporary retreat in the French countryside, near Geneva, offering an unparalleled blend of elegance, privacy, and modern sophistication. This grand estate, defined by its architectural harmony of glass, stone, and steel, is designed for discerning guests seeking the ultimate luxury stay near Geneva and the French Alps. Set within manicured grounds and bathed in natural light, the chateau delivers a refined sanctuary where serenity and indulgence meet in perfect balance.

Inside, the design reveals a modern symphony of natural textures and bespoke furnishings, combining sleek minimalism with timeless luxury. Expansive living areas invite both relaxation and refined entertaining, while a state-of-the-art kitchen and elegant dining spaces set the scene for exquisite culinary experiences. Seven sumptuous suites, each with en-suite bathrooms, provide a haven of comfort with king beds, fine linens, and serene views. The estate's amenities are of exceptional caliber, including a private spa with Jacuzzi, sauna, and hammam; a heated 20-meter swimming pool; and a world-class home cinema awarded Best Home Cinema 2022. Additional features such as a music studio, billiard room, F1 simulators, and a fitness room ensure that every stay is a personalised journey of leisure and delight.

The exteriors are an extension of the chateau's refined grandeur, encompassing lush gardens, an outdoor lounge with bar and summer kitchen, and tranquil spaces for alfresco dining. The grounds invite moments of repose beneath open skies or by the pool's shimmering water, framed by breathtaking Alpine horizons. REST OF FRANCE

SAINT-CERGUES

As Ernest Hemingway once said, "If you are lucky enough to have lived in Paris as a young man, then wherever you go for the rest of your life, it stays with you, for Paris is a movable feast." This sentiment rings true not just for Paris but for the whole of France. It transcends being a country but a collection of feelings, memories, and dreams. Its charm lies in its ability to blend the old with the new, serving both as a muse and a mentor.
