VILLA ARIANNA

LAS TUNAS BEACH, MALIBU

Villa Arianna is a bright, contemporary beachfront retreat perched directly above the sand at Las Tunas Beach in Malibu. This brand-new beachfront villa is tailor-made for discerning guests seeking direct beach access paired with sleek, contemporary comfort.

Interiors present a striking fusion of clean-lined modern architecture and airy coastal minimalism, where crisp white walls and glass sliding doors dissolve the boundary between indoors and the Pacific beyond. The open-plan living and dining areas flow seamlessly onto the oceanfront deck, framed by floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the space with natural light and endless sea views. The dining area gathers guests around a long wooden table perched just steps from the surf, ideal for sunset dinners with the sound of waves close at hand. Bedrooms are individually appointed retreats dressed in soft whites and natural light, several opening directly onto private balconies overlooking the water. In total, Villa Arianna comfortably accommodates up to eight guests across its four beautifully appointed bedrooms. The primary suite impresses with a spa-inspired en-suite bathroom featuring marble finishes, dual vanities, and a glass-enclosed walk-in shower. A dedicated table tennis area, wine storage, and built-in sound system add a playful, sophisticated edge to interiors otherwise defined by breezy simplicity.

Outdoors, a bubbling oceanfront hot tub extends Villa Arianna's coastal hospitality directly to the water's edge, framed by uninterrupted views of the Pacific horizon. Plush sun loungers and a cozy fire pit set the scene for golden-hour gatherings steps from the sand, while the spacious terrace and al fresco dining area invite guests to savor every meal to the rhythm of the waves. Elegant and beautifully positioned, Villa Arianna belongs among Malibu's most desirable beachfront villa rentals.
