VILLA TANA

CAP D'AIL, MONACO

Villa Tana is an exceptional contemporary coastal retreat overlooking the Mediterranean, positioned in the prestigious Cap-d'Ail enclave just minutes from Monaco. Set within a quiet residential setting, this luxury seaview vacation rental is defined by modern architectural lines, expansive glass façades, and a perfectly balanced integration with its natural surroundings. Panoramic sea views and refined privacy make the villa an ideal Riviera residence for elevated, discreet escapes.

The interiors unfold across three levels, showcasing a contemporary design language defined by clean lines, generous volumes, and abundant natural light streaming through large bay windows. The main living room is bright and open, seamlessly extending toward the exterior while offering a sophisticated yet relaxed atmosphere. Adjacent, a refined dining area connects to a fully equipped open-plan kitchen designed for both functionality and understated elegance. The residence accommodates five bedrooms, including a master suite with a private dressing room and en-suite bathroom. There are four additional bedrooms that ensure comfort and privacy throughout. Supporting spaces include a welcoming entrance hall, guest facilities, a laundry room, and a cellar. Every element of the interior composition reflects a balance of modern refinement and effortless livability, enhanced by seamless indoor-outdoor transitions.

Outdoors, landscaped flat gardens frame an inviting infinity pool that appears to merge with the horizon, complemented by multiple relaxation areas designed for leisure and quiet retreat. The grounds are both structured and lush, offering a tranquil environment with uninterrupted sea views. Additional amenities include ample parking and a spacious garage, completing a setting that evokes serenity, exclusivity, and the timeless allure of the French Riviera.
