CANYONS VILLAGE, PARK CITY

Stillson Meadows is a distinguished alpine retreat set within the Canyons area of Park City, offering a luxury ski-access vacation experience in one of Utah’s most prestigious mountain destinations. Positioned within a private enclave with expansive mountain views, the residence is defined by its contemporary architecture, terraced design, and use of natural stone and timber. Its location provides seamless proximity to world-class skiing, dining, and year-round outdoor pursuits, making it an exceptional base for elevated alpine living.

The interiors present a refined mountain-modern aesthetic, where clean architectural lines are softened by warm natural materials and bespoke furnishings. Expansive glazing invites natural light while framing panoramic alpine vistas, enhancing the sense of openness throughout the living spaces. The main living room is centered on a statement fireplace, with plush seating arranged for both relaxation and social gatherings. A fully equipped chef’s kitchen features high-end appliances, sleek cabinetry, and a generous island, complemented by a dining area suited for formal or informal entertaining. The residence offers multiple well-appointed bedrooms, each designed with comfort and privacy in mind, featuring luxurious linens and en-suite bathrooms. Thoughtfully arranged sleeping configurations provide flexibility for families and groups. Additional amenities include a media room, wellness-oriented spaces, and seamless in-home technology, ensuring both comfort and convenience throughout the stay.

Outdoors, Stillson Meadows is surrounded by the dramatic beauty of Park City’s alpine landscape, with expansive terraces and outdoor living areas oriented toward the slopes. A private hot tub and fire features create inviting spaces for après-ski relaxation, while direct access to the mountain enhances the ski experience.
