CASA MIA

TRANCOSO, TRANCOSO

Casa Mia is a captivating tropical retreat nestled amid lush Brazilian rainforest in the coveted enclave of Trancoso, Bahia. Towering palms, dense greenery, and dappled natural light envelop the estate, creating an immersive sense of seclusion and organic tranquility. Just moments from Trancoso's charming cobblestone quadrado and pristine beaches, Casa Mia offers guests a rare fusion of jungle serenity and effortless coastal access. This barefoot-luxury sanctuary is the epitome of understated Brazilian elegance.

Spanning 5,381 sq.ft., Casa Mia showcases an artful, earthy aesthetic defined by raw timber beams, woven rattan pendant lighting, and warm natural textures throughout its open-plan living spaces. A sunken lounge area with plush curved seating invites relaxed gatherings, while the space flows seamlessly into a striking dining pavilion framed by rustic wood furnishings and dramatic oversized woven light fixtures. The open-concept kitchen is finished with polished concrete countertops and a generous island, offering an inviting space for casual culinary moments. Five beautifully appointed bedrooms, each dressed in soft natural linens and finished with artisanal decorative accents, comfortably accommodate up to 10 guests, while sleek concrete and stone bathrooms open onto private tropical gardens for an immersive indoor-outdoor bathing experience.

Casa Mia comes to its fullest expression outdoors, where a striking infinity pool winds beneath towering trees, framed by a wooden sundeck and inviting lounge furnishings. Guests may gather for al fresco dining beneath the jungle canopy or wander the estate's tranquil garden pathways at dusk. TRANCOSO

In the Brazilian state of Bahia, the idyllic coastal town of Trancoso offers visitors a reprieve from the ordinary. Set against the crystal-clear waters of the Atlantic, this little slice of paradise is a captivating blend of natural beauty, rustic allure, and luxurious living. In the 1970s, Trancoso began attracting many hippies, who coexisted peacefully with the local fishermen. Together, they enjoyed the unspoiled charm of the area – from the pristine beaches to the lush central square of the town. While its residents have opened their tropical haven up to the world, they also preserved the area’s natural simplicity that renders it so unique. You won’t find grand resorts, Michelin-starred eateries, bustling nightlife, luxury shopping districts, or scenic marinas here. Instead, the appeal lies in its unadorned beauty, which has drawn an impressive array of visitors, including Naomi Campbell, Leonardo DiCaprio, Beyoncé, and chic Brazilian high-flyers. Local property owners, craftsmen, and fishermen have all worked together to protect their secluded paradise, constructing intimate houses and boutique accommodations and maintaining a modest array of restaurants and cafes. With large hotel chains and tourists seeking a more polished experience having left the beaches and town square unspoiled, Trancoso remains an exquisite oasis of unrivaled beauty.
