CONVENTO VIANDANTE DEL CIELO

PERUGIA, UMBRIA

Convento Viandante del Cielo is an enchanting stone convent beautifully positioned in a sublime pastoral setting. Commanding a lush hillside of undulating vineyards and olive groves, this ravishing heritage estate peers into the purest expression of Umbrian natural beauty. Immersive views abound stretching to the shimmering shores and islands of Lake Trasimeno in the distance. Centrally poised two hours from Rome and 90 minutes from Florence, Convento Viandante immerses guests in fascinating regional history, providing the epitome of seclusion for those seeking a blissful pastoral getaway.

Spectacular interiors present an unforgettable marriage of Italianate heritage and country-modern sensibilities. Drenched in pastoral romance guests may congregate in a dazzling galleried library and living room with a restructured Renaissance fireplace and a wet bar. Soaring vaulted exposed beams make up a showstopping great room brimming with pastoral romance and high culture refinement. Perfected for lavish entertaining and indulgent gastronomic affairs, a 34 seat dining table sets the scene in the repurposed library. An adjacent wine cellar with a dizzying spectrum of labels keeps pairing options effectively endless. Set over three floors, this legendary Umbrian country retreat boasts an impressive array of contemporary amenities and state-of-the-art facilities to soothe the spirit and calm the soul. This manor has eleven beautifully designed ensuite bedrooms complete with state of the art entertainment units and spa-inspired baths. Delivering a wealth of fantastic living spaces this expansive luxury manor accommodates 20 guests in total luxury and comfort. Amongst a dazzling roster of elite amenities are private cinema, massage room and much more.

Nestled in the midst of its scenic surroundings, the refurbished 16th-century facility features 13 acres of immaculately manicured gardens lawns, orchards and olive groves. Summer activity abounds between croquet, boules, or tennis court. An oversized swimming pool is ideal for midday refreshment and morning laps. Palladian fountains border the native oak forest and a warm and inviting fire pit provides spectacular views of the medieval town and lights across Lake Trasimeno.
