YACHT HEED 114

MOTOR 100-150FT, YACHTS

Yacht Heed 114 is an exquisite 114-foot vessel built by revered shipbuilders Azimut. A stunning marriage of brash Italian design and state-of-the-art engineering, this luxury yacht charter features two MTU 16V 2000 M93 diesel engines and enjoys a max speed of 26 knots. A seductive carbon fiber exterior by Stefano Righini redefines streamlined excellence with an instantly recognizable silhouette that will dazzle the discerning seafarer.

Immaculate interiors, courtesy of the acclaimed designers at Achille Salvagni, takes cosmopolitan elegance and Bondian refinement to all new heights. Contemporary styling, deluxe furnishings, and sumptuous upholstery feature throughout to create a chic and comfortable atmosphere. Scintillating glass accents and elite custom consoles make up wondrous trophy spaces shrouded in rich textures of matte, textured wood, and gleaming polished consoles. A feat of nautical craftsmanship, Heed flaunts exclusive finishes, including bronze and brass inlays, imparting the luxury vessel a sense of timeless prestige. Delivering all the comforts of terra firma on the open water, Yacht Heed sleeps ten guests between five stunning staterooms. Four cabins accommodate a dedicated crew assuring the pinnacle of white-glove service on board. Elite amenities include, yet are not limited to, a winter garden, beauty salon, sauna, and theatre room.

Yacht Heed 114 comes to its fullest expression with its dazzling outdoor spaces. Extensive multi-level deck spaces embody high-seas exhilaration and fine living. A dazzling third-level deck dazzles with an indulgent sundeck and a side garage for water toys. A pair of beach clubs occupy the bow and stern setting apart a fantastic space for entertaining on the high seas. Complete with a tender and toys, including jetskis, underwater scooters, wakeboards, waterskis, and snorkeling gear, Heed promises endless nautical adventure.
