YACHT QUITE ESSENTIAL 180

MOTOR 150-200FT, YACHTS

Yacht Quite Essential 180 is an opulent 180-foot luxury vessel meticulously crafted by Heesen in 2011. This vessel proudly showcases an illustrious hull design and a meticulously curated interior. Immerse yourself in the zenith of opulence aboard this resplendent craft, where the seamless convergence of elegance and engineering excellence beckons discerning aficionados of luxury. Propelled by a pair of 2 X 5,766HP MTU engines, the yacht attains a cruising speed of 22 knots and a maximum speed of 24 knots.

Experience unparalleled luxury aboard the yacht Quite Essential, meticulously designed by Dobroserdov Design to embody size, space, innovation, and comfort. This opulent vessel redefines extravagance with its expansive and sumptuous interior. Lavish, sleek furniture graces the living spaces, creating an atmosphere of unmatched sophistication. The kitchen on Quite Essential 180 is a professional haven equipped with top-of-the-line appliances, ensuring culinary excellence on the high seas. The yacht boasts a perfect blend of innovation and comfort, ensuring a decadent experience on the high seas. With six cabins accommodating up to twelve guests, this vessel also features additional cabins to accommodate a dedicated crew of ten, ensuring an unparalleled level of service and comfort.

Indulge in lavish leisure on the sundeck of Quite Essential, adorned with a forward jacuzzi providing panoramic views. The al fresco dining table and bar invite guests to relish exquisite moments. The main deck astounds with a spa pool and waterfall, accompanied by a seated drinks bar and a U-shaped lounge, promising an oasis of tranquility. Revel in luxury with her array of tenders and toys, including a Vaudrez Miller 7.5 limo tender, Castoldi 18 jet rescue boat tender, two jet skis, water skis, wakeboards, inflatables, snorkeling gear, and fishing equipment, elevating every seafaring experience.
